SUBJECT:

These proposed revisions of paragraphs d were initiated by the Office of Legislative Liaison (OLL) in response to a suggestion by the Chairman of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. Accordingly, OLL proposes that special leaves of absence normally would not exceed 30 days. This leave would be authorized for employees and dependents who have suffered exceptional physical hardship or abuse abroad and must be returned to the United States, or are forced to leave their overseas duty stations by the host country.

2. Please forward your concurrence and/or comments to the undersigned by 24 July 1984. Concurrence sheets are attached for your convenience.
